

Case Study

The Client: Chambers Travel
Industry: Travel Management
Requirement: Bid Specialists

The Client

Chambers is one of the fastest growing travel management companies in the UK with offices across Europe. They are a boutique global agency that takes an award winning approach which combines best-in-class technologies and great people to deliver comprehensive content and simple business travel management processes, flexibly and personally. They call it The Chambers Way.

Our Experience of working with Chambers Travel

In July 2015, Bid Solutions was tasked with finding a Bid Writer to join Chambers Travel. Having spent the majority of the year trying to recruit, with internal and external recruiters both proving unsuccessful, they decided they needed specialist help. Amber Holden, Bid Manager, provided a brief to Bid Solutions in the hope that they could succeed where others couldn't.

"I had a clear understanding from the outset of the kind of candidate that Amber was looking for. She did a great job of selling the company and her enthusiasm for the role was apparent, which allowed me to provide candidates with a really positive impression of the organisation. With our unrivalled network, sourcing passionate writers was relatively straightforward" Ben Hannon, Senior Consultant at Bid Solutions.

Having agreed to engage Bid Solutions, it took fewer than 4 days to provide a shortlist of candidates. From this list Amber made her selection and worked with candidates through the interview process. With an impressive shortlist, Amber had the difficult task of choosing just one. Since starting, both Amber and the new recruit have provided positive feedback on another successful connection by Bid Solutions.

TESTIMONIAL: "After searching for a bid writer with the right experience and attitude for our business for nearly six months to no avail, I contacted Bid Solutions to help me recruit. Very quickly I was provided with a shortlist of experienced and capable professionals that met our requirements. We offered one the job and I have now finally filled the position! I was very impressed with the efficient service I received from Bid Solutions and the quality of candidates that they put forward for the role."
Amber Holden, Bid Manager at Chambers Travel

Bid Solutions is the leading provider of bid and proposal professionals - we connect winners. Our team is APMP certified so we understand your complex bid and proposal process, and the demands it puts upon your business. Whether you are looking to improve your win-rate or develop a winning career, we have the people and opportunities.